

REGISTERED NURSE:

Elder Services of Worcester Area, Inc., a social service agency working with consumers in the community, has a two full time RN positions available:

PERSONAL CARE ATTENDANT PROGRAM

Responsibilities include in-home evaluations and re-evaluations for Personal Care Attendant Program consumers, submission of documentation to MassHealth for program approval, collaboration with social workers and community agencies, nursing facility discharge planning, and other services. A valid Massachusetts license to practice as a Registered Nurse required.

CLINICAL ASSESSMENT & ELIGIBILITY PROGRAM

Responsibilities include in-home assessments for the Clinical Assessment & Eligibility Program, assessing consumers in need of personal care or home health services, interdisciplinary collaboration with social workers and community agencies, nursing facility discharge planning, and other services. A Bachelor of Science in Nursing or Associates of Science degree in Nursing and at least one year of clinical experience and/or nursing in a community or long term care setting or a Diploma RN and two additional years of community based nursing experience or long term care direct service experience required.

Computer experience preferred. Driver's license and transportation necessary. Salary: $48,340 annually. Excellent benefits and work schedule, 37.5 hours Monday – Friday (no evenings, weekends, holidays or on-call). Send resume by September 15, 2017 to: Stacy McGann, Elder Services of Worcester Area, 67 Millbrook Street, Suite 100, Worcester, MA 01606, Fax: (508) 754-7771, or email smcgann@eswa.org
AA/EOE